Theme

TRANSFORMATIVE THERAPEUTICS & TECHNOLOGIES IN PSYCHIATRY

Psychiatry is undergoing a period of significant evolution. Advances in neuroscience, genetics, therapeutics, psychotherapeutic science, digital technologies, and models of care are reshaping how mental health conditions are understood, formulated, and managed across clinical and community settings. These developments reflect a shift toward more integrated, mechanism-informed, and contextually grounded approaches to mental health care.

The conference theme for ANCIPS 2027, Transformative Therapeutics and Technologies in Psychiatry, reflects the rapidly evolving landscape and significant paradigm shifts within the field. Psychiatry today stands at the intersection of tradition and innovation, shaped by remarkable advances in genetics, neuroscience, digital technologies, novel therapeutics, and evolving models of care delivery.

The term “transformative” is chosen thoughtfully and with intent. It signifies not just change, but meaningful progress—enhancing our understanding of mental illness while improving the ways we prevent, diagnose, and treat it. It emphasizes a balanced integration of time-tested wisdom with cutting-edge advancements, where technology serves as a powerful enabler rather than a replacement for clinical insight and human connection.

Psychiatry 1.0 was rooted in understanding and treating mental illness primarily through a psychosocial framework, emphasizing environment, relationships, and lived experiences. Psychiatry 2.0, which most of us practice today, builds upon this foundation by incorporating pharmacological interventions alongside psychosocial approaches, offering more structured and evidence-based care.

Looking ahead, Psychiatry 3.0 represents the next frontier—an era where Psychiatry 2.0 is seamlessly integrated with emerging technologies such as digital health platforms, artificial intelligence, precision medicine, and brain stimulation therapies. This phase promises more personalized, predictive, and participatory mental healthcare, tailored to individual needs and supported by real-time data and innovation.

ANCIPS 2027 offers a compelling preview of this future. It is a space where our rich clinical knowledge and experience are further refined and amplified by the intelligent use of technology. It invites us to reimagine psychiatric practice, education, and research in ways that are more inclusive, effective and forward-looking.

Welcome to Psychiatry - where tradition meets innovation, and care meets transformation.

INDIAN PSYCHIATRIC SOCIETY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Beyond the borders it has a major role & influence all over India and abroad being a source of learning, for many pioneering concepts and outreach activities.

The Current Theme: 'Transformative Therapeutics and Technology in Psychiatry' is timely and deserves kudos to the Scientific Committee for bringing to the focus major changes happening in relation to Technology, having it's role in our life. The Presence of Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning and the Digital World as a whole in our day-to-day life on the one hand and its omnipresence in our professional life needs no emphasis. It's influence in our very living in all its aspects is well recognized. It is shaping our children, adults and elderly, both men and women in so many ways. The cosmos of Digital World encompasses our schools and academic settings, hospitals and therapeutic care settings, family, parenting and the relationships. We are witness to the transformative changes that are happening and the new wave of disorders emerging. Are we ready?

We were part of the traditional psychiatry and classical approaches to management of Mental Health issues. However, the emergence of newer Science and Technology, progress in social media and distant approaches, over and above Artificial Intelligence at our doorstep, it is expected that there will be revolutionary changes, both in understanding and interventions. The emerging concepts in Psychiatry including further specializations are taking shape. I am confident the conference will throw light on the newer changes in the anvil so also integration of the same to the best extent possible with the traditional approaches we have. INDIAN PSYCHIATRIC SOCIETY VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues

As the preparations for ANCIPS 2027 gather momentum, I would like to extend a warm invitation to colleagues and members of the Indian Psychiatric Society to join us in Madurai. I would also like to convey my heartfelt wishes to the entire organising team of Madurai, led by Dr K Ramakrishnan as Organising Chairperson and Dr R Sabrin Sonjeev Ross as Organising Secretary, along with their dedicated organising team. Hosting the Annual National Conference of the Indian Psychiatric Society is not merely an academic responsibility; it is a privilege that reflects the dedication, credibility, and spirit of the host team. I am confident that the conference in Madurai will stand as a memorable milestone in the journey of IPS.

Madurai is not just a city; it is a living symbol of India's rich heritage and cultural depth. The timeless grandeur of the Meenakshi Amman Temple, with its magnificent gopurams and centuries old traditions, reflects a spirit of devotion, resilience, and continuity. The city has long been known as a place where culture, scholarship, and community flourish together. Hosting ANCIPS in such a historic and spiritually vibrant city will undoubtedly add a special meaning to the gathering of psychiatrists from across the country.

On a personal note, Madurai holds a special place in my heart. About five years ago, during my first visit to this historic city, I had the opportunity to seek blessings at the sacred Meenakshi Amman Temple. Standing there, I had a quiet but powerful feeling that one day I might take over the charge of the Indian Psychiatric Society in Madurai. At that moment, it felt like just a passing thought, but today, as ANCIPS 2027 approaches, it feels deeply meaningful to see that moment slowly turning into reality. In many ways, taking charge as President of IPS in the blessed city of Madurai truly feels like a divine blessing. Behind every successful conference lie months and years of quiet, committed work. The organising committee deserves special appreciation for the enormous effort that goes into planning an event of this scale. From academic programming and logistics to hospitality and coordination, the responsibility is immense, and it is the passion of the team that transforms these efforts into a meaningful experience for delegates from across the country.

I am confident that under your leadership, ANCIPS 2027 will not only uphold the proud traditions of IPS but also create new benchmarks in academic excellence, collaboration, and camaraderie. Your dedication will ensure that the conference becomes a platform for meaningful dialogue, innovative ideas, and a renewed commitment to advancing mental health care in our country.

Wishing the entire Madurai team great success as you move forward with the preparations. May ANCIPS 2027 be remembered not only for its academic brilliance but also for the warmth, unity, and spirit with which it is organised. I look forward to meeting everyone in Madurai and being part of what will surely be a memorable and inspiring conference.

Warm regards,

Dr OP Singh
